PART 2 Beekeepers Plan

Beekeepers plan continued

3 The Beekeepers Development Plan is continued.

Application

4 Subject to any exemptions made by order of the commission, the beekeepers plan and the orders of the commission made pursuant to the beekeepers plan apply:

- (a) throughout Saskatchewan; and
- (b) to all persons engaged in the production, marketing or production and marketing of bees or bee products in Saskatchewan.

Purpose

5(1) The purpose of the beekeepers plan is to develop the bee and bee products industry in Saskatchewan.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the specific purposes of the beekeepers plan are:

- (a) to assist in the development and promotion of bees and bee products in the domestic and international marketplaces;
- (b) to conduct and encourage research on:
  - (i) the production, market development and processing of bees and bee products;
  - (ii) the consumption of bee products; and
  - (iii) the health of the industry and beekeeping practices;
- (c) to advise governments on matters pertaining to bees and bee products research and development;

- (d) to gather, compile and distribute information related to the production, consumption and market development of bees and bee products;
- (e) to encourage the production of uniformly high-quality bees and bee products;
- (f) to promote harmony and communication within the bee and bee products industry;
- (g) to initiate and implement advertising programs, sales promotion programs and consumer education programs to expand awareness of and demand for bees and bee products;
- (h) to establish a system of collecting a levy on the production, marketing or production and marketing of bees and bee products for the purpose of carrying out the objectives of the beekeepers plan;
- (i) to maintain representation on national agencies via a producer-appointed board member;
- (j) to work in cooperation with any persons or organizations that have objectives similar to those of the beekeepers plan.

PART 3 Commission

Commission continued

- 6(1) The Saskatchewan Beekeepers Development Commission is continued as a development commission pursuant to the Act.
- (2) Subject to section 36, the commission consists of 6 directors elected in accordance with Part 7.
- (3) If fewer than 6 directors are elected pursuant to Part 7, the commission may appoint registered beekeepers as directors as it considers necessary to fill the vacant positions.
- (4) The commission shall administer the beekeepers plan.

Powers of commission

- 7(1) Subject to the other provisions of these regulations, the commission may exercise the following powers that are set out in subsection 8(1) of the Act:
  - (a) the power to carry out educational, research and developmental programs related to bees or bee products;
  - (b) the power to require any or all persons engaged in the production, marketing or production and marketing of bees or bee products to register with the commission;
  - (c) the power to set and collect registration fees and charges for services rendered by the commission from any person engaged in the production, marketing or production and marketing of bees or bee products;
  - (d) the power to set and collect a levy from any person engaged in the production, marketing or production and marketing of bees or bee products;

- (e) the power to categorize into groups persons engaged in the production, marketing or production and marketing of bees or bee products for the purpose of setting and collecting the fees, charges or levies mentioned in clauses (c) and (d);
- (f) the power to set and collect penalties from any person who:
  - (i) is engaged in the production, marketing or production and marketing of bees or bee products; and
  - (ii) contravenes an order of the commission;
- (g) the power to recover any unpaid fees, charges, levies or penalties mentioned in clause (c), (d) or (f) by an action in a court of competent jurisdiction;
- (h) the power to require any person engaged in the production, marketing or production and marketing of bees or bee products to furnish the commission with any information or records relating to that production or marketing that the commission considers necessary;
- (i) the power to market, grade or insure bees or bee products, either as principal or agent;
- (j) the power to:
  - (i) employ any officers and employees that it considers necessary to administer the beekeepers plan; and
  - (ii) determine the duties, conditions of employment and remuneration of its officers and employees;
- (k) the power to establish or support a group insurance plan, a pension plan or any other employee benefit programs for its officers and employees mentioned in clause (j) and their dependants;
- (l) the power to use any moneys received by the commission to carry out the purposes of the beekeepers plan and to pay the expenses of the commission;
- (m) the power to borrow, raise or secure the payment of moneys in any manner that the commission considers appropriate for the purpose of administering the beekeepers plan;
- (n) the power to draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, issue, hypothecate or assign promissory notes, bills of exchange or other negotiable or transferable instruments;
- (o) subject to subsection (3), the power to make grants or loans to any person, organization, agency, institution or body within or outside Saskatchewan, for the purposes of the beekeepers plan;
- (p) subject to subsection (3), the power to give financial guarantees respecting the indebtedness of any person if the commission considers it necessary or advisable for the purposes of the beekeepers plan;
- (q) the power to purchase, take on lease or exchange or otherwise acquire real and personal property related to the business of the commission, and to insure, sell or otherwise dispose of any of its property;

- (r) the power to grant a mortgage or security interest in any of the commission's real or personal property;
- (s) subject to section 35 of the Act, the power to enter into any agreement with any person, agency, organization, institution or body within or outside Saskatchewan for any purpose related to the exercise of any of the powers or the carrying out of any of the duties of the commission in relation to the beekeepers plan;
- (t) the power to:
  - (i) require any person who owes money to a registered beekeeper with respect to the sale by the registered beekeeper of bees or bee products to pay the moneys to the commission; and
  - (ii) distribute the moneys paid to the commission pursuant to subclause (i), in the manner determined by the commission, to the registered beekeeper to whom the moneys are owing;
- (u) the power to:
  - (i) purchase or acquire by any other means, in the open market or otherwise, any securities of any corporation; and
  - (ii) hold membership in any corporation;
- (v) the power to:
  - (i) hold, sell, transfer or otherwise deal with any of the securities mentioned in clause (u); and
  - (ii) exercise any rights, including the right to vote, as:
    - (A) an owner of the securities mentioned in clause (u); or
    - (B) a member;
- (w) the power to register a business name pursuant to The Business Names Registration Act;
- (x) the power to prescribe the manner in which remuneration and reimbursement for expenses of the directors is to be determined and paid.

(2) The commission shall not regulate or control in any way the production, marketing or production and marketing of bees or bee products.

(3) Neither the sum of the loans mentioned in clause (1)(o) nor the sum of the financial guarantees mentioned in clause (1)(p) shall exceed 10% each of the commission's current assets as reported in the audited financial statement in the commission's most recent annual report at the time the loan is made or the financial guarantee is given.

Books and records

8(1) The commission shall:

- (a) maintain any books and records that may be required for the administration of the beekeepers plan; and
  - (b) keep those books and records open for inspection by the council at any reasonable time.
- (2) The commission shall maintain a registered office and head office in Saskatchewan.
- (3) The commission shall prepare an annual report containing:
- (a) a copy of the audited financial statement of the commission for its previous fiscal year;
  - (b) a description of:
    - (i) the state of the industry; and
    - (ii) the activities of the commission for its previous fiscal year;
  - (c) a statement comparing actual results to budgeted results for the previous fiscal year;
  - (d) a budget statement for the current fiscal year; and
  - (e) a list of the names of, and contact information for, the directors of the commission.
- (4) The commission shall make the annual report available:
- (a) to the council;
  - (b) at the annual general meeting of registered beekeepers; and
  - (c) on request to the following:
    - (i) any registered beekeeper;
    - (ii) any other interested person.

Appointment of auditor

9(1) The registered beekeepers:

- (a) shall, at each annual general meeting, appoint an auditor to audit the books, records and financial statements of the commission for the current fiscal year; and
  - (b) may, at any special general meeting, appoint an auditor to audit the books, records and financial statements of the commission for the current fiscal year.
- (2) If the registered beekeepers fail to appoint an auditor pursuant to clause (1)(a) for a fiscal year, the council shall appoint an auditor to audit the books, records and financial statements of the commission for that fiscal year.
- (3) Any person appointed as auditor pursuant to this section must:
- (a) be independent of:

- (i) the commission; and
  - (ii) the directors and officers of the commission; and
- (b) be a member in good standing of a recognized accounting profession that is regulated by an Act.

Committees

- 10(1) The commission may appoint any committee that it considers necessary or desirable for the proper operation of the beekeepers plan.
- (2) The members of a committee appointed pursuant to this section are entitled to any remuneration and reimbursement for expenses that the commission may determine.

President and vice-president

- 11(1) The commission shall elect a president and vice-president from among the directors of the commission at their first meeting in each year after new directors have been elected.
- (2) The president and vice-president hold office at the pleasure of the commission.
- (3) The president, or in the absence of the president the vice-president, shall preside over all meetings of the commission.

Quorum

- 12 For the transaction of business at a duly called meeting of the commission:
- (a) a majority of the commission constitutes a quorum; and
  - (b) a decision of a majority of those directors constituting a quorum is a decision of the commission.

Policies re conflict of interest and code of conduct

- 13 The commission shall maintain and make available to the council:
- (a) a conflict of interest policy for the directors; and
  - (b) a policy respecting a code of conduct for the directors.

Conflicts of interest

- 14(1) No director shall:
- (a) fail to disclose to the commission any conflict of interest that the director may have; or
  - (b) vote on any matter with respect to which the director has any direct or indirect financial interest that is different from the financial interest of other beekeepers.
- (2) If the commission is uncertain whether or not a director has a conflict of interest mentioned in clause (1)(a) or (b), the commission must adjourn the matter until the conflict of interest issue is resolved pursuant to the policies mentioned in section 13.

Bank accounts

15 The commission may open accounts in the name of the commission in a bank, a credit union or a trust corporation licensed pursuant to The Trust and Loan Corporations Act, 1997 and appoint signing officers.

Investments

16 The commission may:

(a) invest any money in its possession or control that is not immediately required for a purpose of the beekeepers plan or its operations in any security or class of securities authorized for investment of money in the general revenue fund pursuant to The Financial Administration Act, 1993; and

(b) dispose of any investment made pursuant to clause (a), in any manner, on any terms and in any amount that the commission considers expedient.

Fiscal year

17 The fiscal year of the commission is the period commencing on September 1 in one year and ending on August 31 of the following year.

Financial plan

18 The commission shall prepare and approve a financial plan of its operations at the beginning of each fiscal year.

Meetings of registered beekeepers

19(1) An annual general meeting of registered beekeepers:

(a) is to be held on or before December 31 of each year; and

(b) is to be held at a place and time determined by the commission.

(2) The commission:

(a) may call a special general meeting of registered beekeepers at any time; and

(b) shall call a special general meeting of registered beekeepers on the written request of not fewer than 15 registered beekeepers.

(3) The commission shall notify all registered beekeepers, in writing:

(a) for an annual general meeting, of the date, time and location not less than 30 days before the date on which the annual general meeting commences; and

(b) for a special general meeting, of the date, time, location and agenda not less than 15 days before the date on which the special general meeting commences.

(4) The notice mentioned in subsection (3) may be sent:

(a) by ordinary or registered mail; or

(b) at the request of a registered beekeeper, by email or fax to an email address or fax number provided by the producer.

(5) If a notice is sent pursuant to clause (4)(b), it is deemed to have been received on the day on which it was sent.

(6) The quorum at an annual general meeting or special general meeting of registered beekeepers is 15 registered beekeepers.

(7) The commission shall present to the annual general meeting:

(a) the financial plan it has approved for the current fiscal year; and

(b) an outline of programs and activities it has planned for the current fiscal year.

(8) Any change to the remuneration to be paid to the directors of the commission is to be determined by motion of the commission and approved by a vote of registered beekeepers at the next annual general meeting or special general meeting.

(9) At an annual general meeting or special general meeting:

(a) any member may speak to a motion respecting the purposes of the beekeepers plan, but only registered beekeepers may vote;

(b) a vote on questions or resolutions respecting the purposes of the beekeepers plan is by show of hands; and

(c) every registered beekeeper is entitled to 1 vote.

PART 4 Registration

Registration of beekeepers

20(1) Every beekeeper who has 100 or more production colonies shall register with the commission at the time and in the manner determined by order of the commission.

(2) Any beekeeper who has fewer than 100 production colonies may elect to register with the commission at the time and in the manner determined by order of the commission.

(3) Any registration made pursuant to subsection (1) must be renewed annually.

(4) Every beekeeper who registers must remit the registration fee and any levy required by these regulations when he or she registers.

(5) The commission shall keep and maintain at its head office a register containing the following information for every registered beekeeper:

- (a) name;
  - (b) number of production colonies, as provided by the registered beekeeper;
  - (c) contact information.
- (6) Registration remains in effect until the registered beekeeper applies for and the commission approves a refund pursuant to section 23.

Registration fee

21 The registration fee mentioned in subsection 20(4) is to be determined by order of the commission.

PART 5 Levies

Levies

22(1) The following persons shall pay to the commission, at the times and in the manner determined by the commission, a levy calculated in accordance with this section:

- (a) every beekeeper engaged in the production, marketing, or production and marketing of bee products who has 100 or more production colonies;
  - (b) every beekeeper who elects to register with the commission pursuant to subsection 20(2).
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the levy mentioned in subsection (1):
- (a) is to be determined by order of the commission; and
  - (b) is to be based on a fixed rate per production colony held by a registered beekeeper per fiscal year.
- (3) The commission shall provide registered beekeepers:
- (a) an opportunity to discuss the rate of levy at annual general meetings and special general meetings; and
  - (b) at least 15 days' notice that the rate of the levy is to be discussed at an annual general meeting or special general meeting.
- (4) The commission may recover from beekeepers in a court of competent jurisdiction the levy mentioned in this section and any fees and charges imposed pursuant to these regulations.

Refund of levies

23(1) The commission shall make a refund of a levy only if:

- (a) the commission receives a written request for the refund from the registered beekeeper on or after October 15 and on or before November 15 with respect to the levy paid in that fiscal year; and

(b) the request has been verified by the commission.

(2) If the commission receives and verifies a written request for a refund of the levy that was paid to the commission by the registered beekeeper pursuant to subsection (1), the commission shall make the refund of that levy to the registered beekeeper not later than March 31 of that fiscal year.

Required notification

24 If, for any one fiscal year, 35% or more of the registered beekeepers representing 35% or more of the levy for that fiscal year request a refund of levies pursuant to subsection 23(1), the commission shall immediately notify the council.

PART 6 Commission Orders

Commission orders

25(1) The president, or in the absence of the president the vice-president, shall sign every order issued by the commission pursuant to section 12 of the Act.

(2) The commission shall number in consecutive order, retain and make available for inspection at its head office by any beekeeper or person designated by the council, original copies of all orders that have been approved by the council pursuant to section 12 of the Act.

(3) The commission shall:

(a) cause all orders of the commission to be published in the Gazette and in any other media it considers appropriate; and

(b) annually review the orders of the commission and consolidate them.

PART 7 Elections

Eligibility

26(1) Every registered beekeeper is eligible to hold office as a director of the commission.

(2) If a registered beekeeper is a corporation, partnership or other organization, it must appoint an individual who is a director, partner, shareholder, member, officer or employee as its representative.

(3) Appointment of a representative pursuant to subsection (2) must be:

(a) in writing; and

(b) filed with the commission in a form and manner acceptable to the commission.

(4) Any corporation, partnership, or other organization is entitled to hold office only through a representative appointed pursuant to subsections (2) and (3).

- (5) Subject to subsection (7), any representative of a corporation, partnership or other organization may vote on behalf of the corporation, partnership or other organization.
- (6) Voting by proxy is prohibited.
- (7) Every registered beekeeper is entitled to 1 vote.

Nominations

27(1) Every registered beekeeper is eligible to be nominated for election as a director of the commission.

(2) The commission shall:

- (a) fix the last date for receipt of written nominations for election to the commission;
- (b) at least 30 days before the last date for receipt of written nominations, notify registered beekeepers that nominations are being accepted for the commission and of the last date for receipt of written nominations;
- (c) hold a special nomination meeting at the annual beekeepers convention that is held in conjunction with the annual general meeting of registered beekeepers to receive further nominations from the registered beekeepers in attendance.

(3) Every nomination must:

- (a) be made in writing in the form required by the commission;
- (b) be signed by:
  - (i) 2 registered beekeepers;
  - (ii) 2 representatives of registered beekeepers mentioned in subsection 26(2); or
  - (iii) any combination of the persons mentioned in subclauses (i) and (ii) totalling 2 persons;
- (c) include a candidate profile, as required by the returning officer; and
- (d) be delivered to the returning officer by mail or email on or before the date fixed pursuant to clause (2)(a) as the last date for receipt of nominations.

(4) Any information provided pursuant to subsection (3) shall be considered confidential and is not to be disclosed to any person until after the date fixed pursuant to clause (2)(a).

(5) After the date fixed pursuant to clause (2)(a), the returning officer shall forward copies of all nominations to the commission.

(6) Any registered beekeeper nominated pursuant to clause (2)(c) must be in attendance at the special nomination meeting mentioned in clause (2)(c) to accept the nomination.

(7) A nomination made at a special nomination meeting is not required to be in writing in accordance with clause (3)(a) if 2 registered beekeepers at the special nomination meeting nominate that person.

Returning officer and scrutineers

28(1) Subject to subsection (2), the commission shall appoint a returning officer and a scrutineer to conduct an election pursuant to section 29.

(2) Registered beekeepers, beekeepers and officers and employees of the commission are not eligible to be appointed pursuant to subsection (1).

(3) The returning officer appointed pursuant to subsection (1) is responsible for all administrative procedures related to conducting an election.

(4) The scrutineer appointed pursuant to subsection (1) is responsible for scrutinizing all actions related to conducting an election.

Conduct of elections

29(1) If not more than the required number of candidates are nominated pursuant to section 27, the candidates nominated are deemed to be elected by acclamation at the election meeting.

(2) If more than the required number of candidates are nominated pursuant to section 27, the commission shall, before the election, post in a conspicuous place at the meeting venue:

(a) the start time of the election meeting;

(b) the time at which the ballots will be cast.

(3) At least 1 hour before the ballot casting time, the commission shall provide a ballot to every registered beekeeper at the election meeting.

(4) Every registered beekeeper who receives a ballot must sign his or her name in a space provided in the list of registered beekeepers provided by the commission to the returning officer.

(5) Every registered beekeeper mentioned in subsection (4) shall complete the ballot provided by the commission and return it to the returning officer.

(6) If a tie does not occur between candidates, the returning officer shall declare those candidates receiving the greatest number of votes, up to the number of director positions to be filled, to be directors of the commission.

(7) The ballot of a registered beekeeper is not valid if:

(a) it is defaced;

(b) it is marked in any way other than to vote for candidates;

(c) it is not the original ballot provided by the commission; or

(d) the individual who voted on behalf of the registered beekeeper voted more than once on behalf of that registered beekeeper.

(8) Ties are decided by the drawing of lots.

(9) If the number of candidates nominated pursuant to section 29 is greater than the number of director positions to be filled, the commission shall not advertise in any manner any funding announcement, new program or new service provided by or delivered on behalf of the commission during the period from the date fixed pursuant to clause 27(2)(a) and the start time of the election meeting mentioned in clause (2)(a).

Failure to receive notice, etc., does not invalidate election

30 The failure of any person to receive a notice, nomination paper or ballot does not invalidate the election.

Election results

31(1) The returning officer shall announce the names of the persons elected as directors at the first annual general meeting of registered beekeepers after the election.

(2) The president of the commission shall include the election results in the president's report.

(3) Within 10 business days after the announcement made pursuant to subsection (1), the commission shall provide to candidates notification of the election results including total vote counts for all candidates.

Term of office, vacancy

32(1) Subject to subsections (2), (3) and (6), a director of the commission holds office:

(a) in the case of an elected director, for a term of 3 years after he or she is elected and until the director's successor is elected or appointed, as the case may be; or

(b) in the case of an appointed director, until the next election is held after he or she is appointed and until the director's successor is elected or appointed, as the case may be.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a director is eligible for re-election or reappointment.

(3) If a director has completed 3 consecutive terms, he or she is not eligible for re-election or reappointment until 1 year has passed since the completion of the director's 3rd consecutive term.

(4) The office of a director becomes vacant if a director:

(a) ceases to qualify as a registered beekeeper;

(b) resigns, dies or is unable to act;

(c) is absent from 2 consecutive meetings of the commission without being excused by a resolution of the commission; or

(d) fails to fulfil his or her duties as established by the policies of the commission and approved by the council.

(5) If the office of a director becomes vacant, the commission may fill the vacancy by appointment for the remainder of the term as follows:

- (a) after giving registered beekeepers the opportunity to put names forward to the commission for consideration for appointment, if more than one name is put forward by the registered beekeepers, the commission shall vote to determine which registered beekeeper is to be appointed director; and
- (b) if no names are put forward by registered beekeepers, the commission may appoint a registered beekeeper to the commission.

Retention of election records

33 The returning officer shall:

- (a) retain the following in his or her possession;
  - (i) the original nominations submitted pursuant to clause 27(3)(a);
  - (ii) the original candidate profiles submitted pursuant to clause 27(3)(c);
  - (iii) the ballots; and
- (b) not destroy any nomination, candidate profile, ballot or other record respecting an election of directors until 35 days after the annual general meeting of registered beekeepers at which the returning officer announced the results of the election.

Challenge to election results

34(1) Any registered beekeeper nominated pursuant to section 27 may challenge the results of an election of directors, as announced by the returning officer pursuant to subsection 31(1), by submitting a written objection to the council.

(2) A written objection submitted pursuant to subsection (1) must:

- (a) set out the grounds for the objection; and
- (b) be received by the council within 30 days after the annual general meeting of registered beekeepers at which the returning officer announced the results of the election.

(3) If the council receives a written objection in accordance with this section and is satisfied that the objection is neither frivolous nor vexatious, the council may appoint a vote recount officer to conduct a recount of the votes cast in the election.

(4) If the council appoints a vote recount officer pursuant to subsection (3), the results of the election as determined by the vote recount officer are final.

PART 8

Repeal, Transitional and Coming into Force

RRS c A-15.21 Reg 5 repealed

35 The Beekeepers Development Plan Regulations are repealed.

Transitional - interim commission

36(1) On the coming into force of The Beekeeper Development Plan Regulations, 2017, the interim commission consists of the following directors:

- (a) Simon Lalonde, Clavet;
- (b) Jake Berg, Melfort;
- (c) Sara Comerford, Grandora;
- (d) Danny Wasylenchuk, Canora;
- (e) Dave Gane, Carrot River;
- (f) Dani Glennie, Langenburg;
- (g) Andrew Hamilton, Regina.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations:

- (a) the directors mentioned in clauses (1)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) hold office for a term commencing on the coming into force of this provision and until the director's successor is elected or appointed;
- (b) the director mentioned in clause (1)(g) holds office for a term commencing on the coming into force of this provision and until the end of the first annual general meeting of registered beekeepers following the coming into force of this provision;
- (c) following the first annual general meeting of registered beekeepers following the coming into force of this provision, the commission is to consist of a maximum of 6 directors;
- (d) directors elected at the first annual general meeting of registered beekeepers following the coming into force of this provision are to hold office for terms as follows:
  - (i) the 2 members with the largest number of votes have terms of 3 years and until their successors are elected or appointed;
  - (ii) the 2 members with the next largest number of votes have terms of 2 years and until their successors are elected or appointed; and
  - (iii) the 2 members with the fewest winning votes have terms of 1 year and until their successors are elected or appointed.

Coming into force

37 These regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.
