

Saskatchewan Beekeepers
Development Commission

"Saskatchewan's One Bee Health Plan: Keeping Saskatchewan Bees Healthy"

- Unhealthy Brood Assay for Breeding Resistant Bees : A tool for Breeding Hygienic Resistant Bees– Dr. Kaira Wagoner, University of North Carolina, NC, USA
- Epidemiology of Nosema and the effect of indoor and outdoor wintering on honey bee colony population and survival in the Canadian Prairies - Ms. Rosanna Punko , University of Manitoba, MB. Canada
- Queen Banking throughout the Winter in Canada: Dr. Pierre Giovenazzo, Professor, Department of Biology, University of Montreal, QC, Canada
- Pesticide Survey of Beebread Samples Across Different Crop Regions in Saskatchewan - Dr. Renata Raina-Fulton (Professor),* Iman Salehi*, and Murray Belyk , Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry, University of Regina, Regina, SK. Canada
- Update of Research Done at Western College of Veterinary Medicine – Elemir Simko – Professor with the Department of Veterinary Pathology at Western College of Veterinary Medicine - Dr. Elemir Simko (Professor) and his team, Department of Veterinary Pathology at Western college of Veterinary Medicine, Saskatoon, SK. Canada
- Saskatchewan Queen Quality & Next Steps – Dr. Medhat Nasr, SBDC Technical Adaptation Program Lead, Prince Albert, SK., Canada
- Provincial Status of Honey Bee Health in Saskatchewan – Geoff Wilson – Provincial Specialist in Apiculture, Government of Saskatchewan, Prince Albert, SK., Canada
- Pollinator Biosecurity: Cucumber Pollination and Pollinator Habitats: Graham Parsons – Pollinator Biosecurity Specialist for the Government of Saskatchewan, Prince Albert, SK., Canada
- Updates from SBDC Directors on SBDC and the Canadian Honey Council Activities including Temporary Foreign Workers Program